the same distance from the Miami Canal, in the front, rendering it easy of access to those desirous of enjoying the benefits of the Institution.

To the lover of nature, few parts of the country can furnish a more pleasing variety of scenery than spreads itself before the traveller all the way from Cincinnati to the Cute. There nature and art combine, rendering the view beautiful beyond description.

The new, large, and beautiful Edifice displays the taste of the artist at a glance. The neatness and elegance of the inferior, combined with the numerous attractions which present themselves to the invalid, cannot fall to render this Establishment a desirable one. The Halls are extensive, the Rooms spacious and inviting, where the invalid, can range at pleasure, free from atmospheric influences, in inclement weather. The Hed Rooms are well ventilated, and neathy turnished; the Halt Kooms are ample and commodious, being convenient for the application of water, in every form. In connection with the Institution there is a Gymnssium Hall, seventy-five test long, where patients will have an opportunity of testoring their muscular strength by healthful exercise. The Springs which furnish the water for this establishment, are clear, pure, soft and abundant; flowing from a gravelly bed, they send forth water both cold and deliclous. The country and neighborhood are remarkable for healthfulness, purity of air, and variety of scenery. All things combined, we cannot think of a more desirable place, for those seeking health, than this Institution.

Dr. Prase, having had much experience in the treatment of disease for many years, begs leave to inform the public that no pains will he spared for the restoration to health of those committed to his care. Mrs. Prase, who has, for several years, devoted her attention to the treatment diseases apecular to her sex, and being every way qualified for so important a station, will take special charge of the female department. POETRY.

The Printer Boy.

BY JESSE HUTCHINSON, 7

[Written for the "Alleghanians," and sung by them at the rinter's Festival in New York.]

I'll sing you a song of a Printer Boy,
Whose bright and honored name
Stands out in glowing captrats,
Upon the scroll of iame;
Who, in the days that tried men's souls,
In freedom's darkest night,
Slood manfully with Washington,
And battled for the right.
Tranklin was that Printer Boy, one of the o

And 'twas that boy who flew his kite

To the thunder clouds on high,
And brought the forked lightning down
From regions of the eky;
'Twas he who caught this fiery horse,
And trained him for the chase,
Till now he's driven sale by Morse
Right into the Printer's case.
Franklin was that Printer Hoy, one of the olden time

Long shall the world extol his name,
The patriot and sage,
Who, fully justified by faith,
Was protetified by faith,
Was protetified and rested,
Ils now worked off and pressed,
A new edition in the skies,
A star among the blest

And now, my brother typos, take
This leader for your guide;
Follow corrected copy, and
All errors mark outside;
Be frugal, chaste and temperate,
Stick to the golden rule,
And you shall shine among the stars,
In the Printing office schoolfust imitate that Printer Boy, one of the olden time.

A pleasant smile to light the eye, And fill the heart with gladness!

Bewitching smiles! when hand in hand,

Who would not brave the tear to-day, And feel the touch of sorrow,
If sunny smiles of joy could gleam,
And change the scene to morrow?

Ol smiles have pow'r, a world of good, To fling around us, ever! Then let us wear their golden beams, And quench their golden bean
And quench their ardor, sever!
For while a smile illumes the eye,
And wreathes the lip in beauty,
The task of life must ever be
A pure and pleasant duty.

Origin of Words and Phrases Windfall-The origin of this word is said to be he following: Some of the nobility of England, by the tenure of their estates, were forbid to fell any trees in the for-est upon them, the timber being reserved for the use of the royal navy. Such trees as fell without cutting were the property of the occupant. A tor-nado was the:efore, a perfect Godsend in every sense of the term, to those who had occupancy of extensive forests, and the windfall was something of great value.

Robbing Peter to pay Paul—In the time of Edward the Sixth, much of the land of St. Peter at Westminister, was seized by his majesty's ministers and courtiers; but in order to reconcile the people to that robbery they allowed a portion of the lands to be appropriated toward the repairs of St. Paul's church; hence the phiase, "robbing Peter to pay He's caught a Tartar-In some battle between the Russians and Tartars, who are a wild sort of a people, in the north of Asia, a private soldier called

"Captain, halloo there, I've caught a Tar-"Fetch him along then," said the Captain.
"Ay, but he won't let me," said the man; and the fact was he had him. So, when a man thinks to take another in, and gets bit himself, they say," he caught a Tartar."

Hie! Betty Martin-Many of our most whi cal perversions of language, for in fact, St. Martin is one of the worthiest of the Roman calendar, and a form o prayer commences with the words, "O, mihi Reate Martine." which was corrupted to "My eye and Betty Martin." Roland for an Oliver—Although no phrase is in nore common use, yet few are acquainted with its more common use, yet few are acquainted with its origin. The expression signifies giving an equivalent. Roland and Oliver were two knights, famous in romance. The wonderful achievements of the one could only be equalled by those of the other. Hence the phrase, "Roland for an Oliver." Mind your P's and Q's.—The origin of the phrase, 'Mind your P's and Q's." is said to have been a call of attention in the old English ale houses, to the pints and quarts being scored down to the un-conscious, or reckless beer bibber.

Hobson's Choice—The expression "Hobson's Choice," is provential both in Europe and in America,

Thomas Hobson was a celebrated carrier at Cambridge, England, who, in his employment in that capacity, added the profession of supplying the students with horses. In doing this he made an equal unalterable rule that each horse should have an equal portion of time in which to rest, as well as to labor, and he always refused to let a horse out of his turn. Hence the second of the capacity of the standard should be supplyed to the supplyed to the standard should be supp is turn. Hence the saying, "Hobson's choice; EUROPEAN THEATRICALS.—The theatres in London—the Lyceum and the Strand—opened their doors during the first week of this month. DEFECT IN GERMAN LANGUAGE.—It appears from the decision of Judge Campbell, in the case of the Trustees, &c., of the Forsyth street Dutch Reformed church vs. Rev. Frederick Busche, that the Germans have but one word to express "majority," and "plurality," and that it can only be determined from the context which of these ideas is intended to be conveyed.

CATHARINE HAYS AND P. T. BARNUM.—Mr. Barnum has contracted an engagement with Miss Oatherine Hays for sixty concerts, to be given under his direction, in California, Mexico, Cuba, the United States, and the British Provinces, of North America. Mr. B. is to pay Miss Hays $50,000, and also to divide the profits of the concerts equally with her. Signor Mengis, and other artists are also engaged, and the party is to sail for California in November. CATHARINE HAYS AND P. T. BARNUM .- Mr. Bar-

Knight was found guilty of cutting telegraph wires at Cheraw, S. There is yet another one to be tried.

Norten Peters, of Missouri, recently made a hand-some speculation by driving sheep over land for Cal-ifornia. He started with 2,500 sheep, and at Salt Lake he sheared them and sold the wool for $2,-500. On reaching California with 2,000 of them in good condition, he was offered eighteen dollars a head for the lot, which he refused, being sure of a
